

Question 1

14. 'Empowering people is a way of linking economic growth with human development.'
Discuss this statement with reference to aid programmes.

[80m]

Question 2

14. Examine how land ownership patterns have impacted on development.

[80m]

Question 3

15. Discuss the arguments for and against international aid.

[80m]

Question 4

13. Examine the impact of Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in empowering people, with reference to examples that you have studied.

[80m]

Question 5

14. Examine the role that national debt, fair trade and land ownership patterns play in the economic development of developing countries.

[80m]

Question 6

13. Examine the way which aid can have both positive and negative impacts on developing countries.

[80m]

Question 7

14. Discuss the idea that Fair Trade not Aid is the best way to tackle economic inequality in the world.

[80m]

Question 8

13. Discuss the role played by Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in the 'aid debate'.

[80m]

Question 9

15. Fair trade supports sustainable development. Discuss.

Question 10

14. Examine two of the major issues arising from the international aid debate.

[80m]

Question 11

14. Examine the part that national debt and global trade patterns play in the continuing cycle of poverty in many countries.

[80m]

Question 12

15. “Aid to developing regions often fails to improve the lives of those for whom it is intended”.
Examine this statement, with reference to examples you have studied.

[80m]