

Question 1

- 13. Views of development and underdevelopment involve contrasting models and approaches to development.
Discuss.

[80m]

Question 2

- 14. Examine sustainable development as a model for future development.

[80m]

Question 3

- 15. Discuss the human and natural causes of desertification and of deforestation.

[80m]

Question 4

- 13. 'We live in an interdependent global economy. Actions or decisions taken in one area have an impact on other areas.'

Examine this statement with reference to each of the following:

- Economic and political refugees
- Migration patterns
- Human rights issues.

[80m]

Question 5

- 14. 'Empowering people is a way of linking economic growth with human development.'
Discuss this statement with reference to aid programmes.

[80m]

Question 6

- 15. Discuss the potential impact of Fair Trade on human and economic development.

[80m]

Question 7

- 13. Views of development and underdevelopment are subject to change.
Discuss.

[80m]

Question 8

- 14. Examine how land ownership patterns have impacted on development.

[80m]

Question 9

15. We live in an interdependent global economy. Actions or decisions taken in one area have an impact on other areas.
Discuss this statement with reference to global warming.

[80m]

Question 10

13. Discuss why sustainable development is important for the future.

[80m]

Question 11

14. Examine the impact of global trading patterns in relation to both producer and consumer regions, with reference to one multinational company (MNC) that you have studied.

[80m]

Question 12

15. Discuss the arguments for and against international aid.

[80m]

Question 13

13. Examine the impact of Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in empowering people, with reference to examples that you have studied.

[80m]

Question 14

14. Examine the role that national debt, fair trade and land ownership patterns play in the economic development of developing countries.

[80m]

Question 15

15. Examine the causes and impacts of deforestation on a local and a global scale.

[80m]

Question 16

13. Examine the way which aid can have both positive and negative impacts on developing countries.

[80m]

Question 17

14. The developed world can often be accused of shortcomings in its view towards developing nations.

Examine this statement referring to differing views of 'development'.

[80m]

Question 18

15. Examine the importance of utilising natural resources in a sustainable way, with reference to examples that you have studied.

[80m]

Question 19

13. Discuss how the operations of Multinational Companies may contribute to the widening economic gap between developing and developed countries.

[80m]

Question 20

14. Discuss the idea that Fair Trade not Aid is the best way to tackle economic inequality in the world.

[80m]

Question 21

15. Examine the causes and the impact of one global environmental issue studied by you.

[80m]

Question 22

13. Discuss the role played by Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in the 'aid debate'.

[80m]

Question 23

14. We live in an interdependent global economy. Actions or decisions taken in one area have an impact on other areas. Discuss.

Question 24

15. Fair trade supports sustainable development. Discuss.

Question 25

13. Examine the impact of global trading systems on both producer and consumer regions.

[80m]

Question 26

14. Examine two of the major issues arising from the international aid debate.

[80m]

Question 27

15. Examine the significance of two of the following environmental issues in a global context:

- desertification
- global warming
- deforestation

[80m]

Question 28

13. “Global warming and desertification are environmental issues which need to be tackled immediately”.

Discuss the above statement, referring to examples you have studied.

[80m]

Question 29

14. Examine the part that national debt and global trade patterns play in the continuing cycle of poverty in many countries.

[80m]

Question 30

15. Examine the idea that attitudes towards development and underdevelopment are subject to change.

[80m]

Question 31

13. With reference to examples that you have studied, examine how natural resources can be exploited in a sustainable way.

[80m]

Question 32

14. Examine the impact of any two of the following global environmental issues:

- Deforestation
- Desertification
- Global warming

[80m]

Question 33

15. “Aid to developing regions often fails to improve the lives of those for whom it is intended”.

Examine this statement, with reference to examples you have studied.

[80m]